

AI Quickstart for AI for private investigators

The realistic AI use cases on one page — no hype, with clear limits.

AI for private investigators — where it really saves time

- 1. Word enquiry and client emails discreetly
- 2. Structure quotes and general contract building blocks
- 3. Turn your own raw notes into readable report drafts
- 4. Reply factually to online reviews
- 5. General info texts for the website and social media

Limit: AI gives you drafts, no guarantees. The professional and legal final check always stays with you.
